JEWIS PLAN NEW YEAR SERVICES

Annual Event to Be Observed in Synagogues of Washington.

Special services in all the Jewish temples and synagogues of the city will start today in celebration of Rosh Hashana, or the New Year, which ushers in the Hebrew year 5678, and marks the beginning of the cycle of sacred observances held during the seventh month of the Jewish calendar.

Its message to man, in the mind of the Jews, is threefold: to contemplate all experiences of the year in the light of discipline by the ruler of human destiny, to renew trust in Him to scrutinize their conduct, and to look upon the life story of Israel as of themselves in the light of God's revelation on Sinai, Moriah and Zion.

The Jewish people of Washington will worship in the several synagogues of the city. Aside from the usual services special attention will be given to the Jewish soldiers, and marines, as well as to Jewish civilian employees of the government, who are strangers in the city, and open invitations have been extended to them by the synagogues here to attend the services.

Services Here.

The Rev. A. Shefferman will officiate at the Adath Israel Synagogue, which has been elaborately decorated. Rabbi Benjamin L. Grossman will speak Monday on "A New Year Message to Troubled Humanity." Tuesday, his subject will be "Life's Deepest Longing and Its Realization."

Rabbi Louis Stern will officiate at the Elshah Street Temple, which has been elaborately decorated, with the American colors dominating in the color scheme.

Rabbi Simon will speak Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock on "A New Heaven and a New Earth." "A Review of the Year," will be his text for the Tuesday morning service at 10 o'clock.

MISS TEW CAPTURES GIRL SCOUT PRIZE

Washington Girl Wins Award of $5 and Certificate.

Miss Helen Tew, 132 W street, who is the proud possessor of check No. 1, for $5.00, and a National Certificate of Merit, awarded by the National Emergency Food Garden Commission for the best canned vegetables grown in Washington war garden. The award was made at the community canning in the Thompson School which has been conducted by Mrs. Charles Wetmore, check No. 2, for $5, and a National Certificate of Merit was awarded to Mrs. J. H. Wesler.

These are the first cash prizes in the country-wide distribution of $5,000, offered for the best canned vegetables by the National Emergency Food Garden Commission.

Carl Vrooman, Assistant Secretary of Agriculture, paid high tribute to the work and complimented Mrs. Wetmore for her part in making the canning project. Other prizes were awarded to Helen Williams, Julia Jones, Mrs. H. M. Vann and Mrs. Frank P. Wilcox. The school hall was crowded and the Girl Scouts cheered Miss Tew when she was announced by the commission that she had won check No. 1.

BOY IS HIT BY CAR.

While playing in front of his home, at 317 G street northwest, 5-year-old Raymond Brightwood was struck yesterday afternoon by a Washington Railway and Electric street car. The boy was taken to the Emergency Hospital in the ambulance of J. L. Evans, Sixteenth and Newton streets northwest, where he was treated for a bad gash on the head. His condition was not serious.

CLIMBER ARRESTED AFTER STUNT HERE

"Daredevil Johnny" Reynolds Is Accused of Obstructing Traffic.

Just as he was about to re-enter the Barrister Building yesterday afternoon after he had descended from a climb up the side, "Daredevil Johnny" Reynolds was placed under arrest by two policemen on a charge of blocking traffic.

Reynolds had just taken up a collection to defray expenses connected with his feat when he was accosted and placed under custody by two policemen.

The next stage of his act was to be the hanging by his heels from the edge of the roof of the building.

With his customary nonchalance, Reynolds had made the climb to the top of the structure by means of a two-inch indentation in the wall. A thousand wide-eyed Washingtoners who had gathered around Seventh and P streets yesterday afternoon after an announcement of the fearless act by Reynolds had been made, were on hand when he started up the side.

Reynolds delivered a short, impressive speech on a ledge twelve feet above the street in which he informed the crowd of his intentions to join the United States army as a volunteer.

When he had attained a height of fifty feet above the ground, the human caterpillar swung out from the wall with his feet, maintaining his hold only by eight small flanges.

When he arrived on the roof of the building Reynolds took a flag up the flagpole with him. The people blocking the street below cheered when the small form of the climber was seen waving the flag back and forth before them.

Reynolds performed his feat of balancing himself on a chair. The arrest of Reynolds was the first of his life. He started in as a juggler and acrobat, but has been climbing since he was five years of age. Many of the tallest buildings of the United States have been scaled by the "human caterpillar."

GEORGE WASHINGTON PLANS FOR OPENING

Faculty of University Returns to Begin Work of Enrollment.

With the return to the city of officials and faculty members from their summer vacation, registration will begin this week in all branches of George Washington University. The new term in all departments will open Wednesday, September 26.

Rear Admiral Charles Herbert Stockton, U. S. N., retired, president of the university, who has been spending the summer in New Hampshire, is expected to return to the university Tuesday. Prof. Richard Cobb, secretary of the university, who has been at his summer home in Massachusetts since June, will be back at his desk tomorrow.

Dr. William Allen Wilbur, dean of Columbian College, is at his summer residence at West Mystic, Conn., but is expected to return either tomorrow or Tuesday. Registration in Columbian will begin immediately following his return. Dr. Howard L. Hopkins, dean of the department of arts and sciences, and of the college of engineering, is at the university daily, and already has begun the work of registration for the College of Engineering. Dr. William Carl Ruediger, dean of Teachers' College, and director of the summer school, also is in the city.

Three of the faculty in the Department of Arts and Sciences have tendered their resignations. Dr. Frank Roy Rutter, assistant professor of commerce, has resigned to accept the post of commercial attaché in Japan. He will be succeeded by Prof. C. C. Koehenderfer, recently instructor in commerce at Cornell University. Dr. Morton C. Woot-Smith, assistant professor of physics, has resigned and will be succeeded by Dr. Thomas B. Brown, recently instructor at Cornell. Mark R. Woodward, assistant professor of electrical engineering, has resigned to accept an engineering position in Pennsylvania. Delos W. Smith, instructor in architecture, has been granted a year's leave of absence to accept a position as assistant architect in charge of the construction of new buildings at Annapolis.

With the appointment of Prof. Koehenderfer to the faculty, new courses in economics will be added. The Art and Science Department buildings, in G street northwest, between Twentieth and Twenty-first streets, have been renovated and are ready for occupancy by students.

GOOD MEDICINE FOR THE BLOOD

Plain Iron Most Economical, Goes Farther and Has Endorsement of Doctors.

ASK FOR ACID IRON MINERAL

When in need of a good tonic and some good medicine to clear up the complexion, enrich and purify the blood, remember Acid Iron Mineral. This pleasant to take, very unusual, and most economical natural iron medicine is so highly concentrated, it goes from two to six times as far as other and weaker preparations of chemist or laboratory.

It has two most important features recognized by the medical fraternity and has been in use in hospitals, sanitariums, private practice and by surgeons for thirty-one years. These features are:

First, Acid Iron Mineral contains no dangerous alcohol, which often so disastrously affects the kidneys, nerves and stomach.

Second, Acid Iron Mineral does not act as a laxative and never upsets the bowels, as so many prepared remedies do.

Third, natural product, tested, concentrated, bottled and sold in the Ferrodine Chemical Corp., I. Anoka, Va., its uniform excellence and freedom from harmful or injurious elements is guaranteed. Children taking plenty of rich, red blood and seemingly troubled with stomach or lack of appetite may be given Acid Iron Mineral with absolute confidence.

If the user is troubled with constipation an A-M Liver Pill or two on going to bed for a few nights is recommended as part of the Acid Iron Mineral treatment.

Both Acid Iron Mineral and the A-M Liver Pills may be secured of nearly all druggists, or will be sent prepaid on receipt of the price, by the Ferrodine Chemical Corp., Roanoke, Va.—Adv.

FINE IS PAID FOR MILITANT

Mrs. Baker Released from Occoquan Despite Protests; to Picket Again.

Against her violent protest, Mrs. Abby Scott Baker was released from the Occoquan workhouse yesterday and last night issued a word that she will be on the next picket line which appears before the White House.

Mrs. Baker lost thirteen pounds during the nine days she was confined and was in such a weakened condition that her husband insisted upon paying her fine and securing her release. She is now under the care of physicians.

The Federal suffrage amendment was favorably reported by the Senate committee yesterday afternoon with a specific recommendation that it ought to pass. Under the general agreement in both branches nothing but war legislation will be considered at the present session so that the bill will go upon the calendar and will be called up for action at the next session, opening in December.

To Resume Picketing.

The women of Cameron House announced last night that they would picket again early this week and that they would visit the women prisoners at Occoquan tomorrow.

Mrs. Baker's husband and attorney, J. Miller Kenyon, appealed to her while in court this morning to let them pay her fine but to no avail. After such protesting, Mrs. Baker was ordered by a bailiff to follow him down stairs to a waiting automobile, which, as she expected, would convey her to the District jail.

She stepped in the automobile followed by her husband and Mr. Kenyon, and was then told that her fine had been paid.

HASBROUCK NAMED CAPTAIN.

Dr. Edwin M. Hasbrouck, 496 Fourteenth street northwest, has been appointed a captain in the Medical Reserve Corps, and has been ordered to report at the Rockefeller Institute at New York for special intensive training. Capt. Hasbrouck expects to be ordered to France within a short time.

HANDBAG AND $190 MISSING.

That her handbag, containing $190 in bills was lost or stolen from her while shopping yesterday was reported to the police last night by Mrs. M. L. Howes, Powhatan Hotel.

WILL SHOW FILM PLAY FOR ENLISTED MEN

Secretary Daniels and Gen. Gorgas to Attend Presentation Today.

Additional importance attaches to the showing of the film, "Damaged Goods," to men in uniform today, following the announcement of the Secretary of the Navy Daniels and Gen. Wm. C. Gorgas, Surgeon General of the Army, will make short talks to the fighters at both the afternoon and evening presentation.

Gen. Gorgas, famed for his sanitation work in cleaning up the Canteen zone, will appear before the audience at the New National Theater in the afternoon, at 2:30 o'clock, and Secretary Daniels will address the men at the night show, scheduled to commence at 8 o'clock.

Making a flying trip from New York City, Richard Bennett, who played the leading role in the original stage production of Brieux's plea for high moral standards, as well as in the photoplay, will also appear.

The committee in charge has decided on a system to show the ticket holder which performance his pasted-on bills for. A large "L" in the left hand corner of the tickets mean that they are for the matinee, and those on which the date "September 16" is printed are for the evening showing.

At National Theater the box office will be open all day long, for the distribution of free tickets to men in uniform, and for selling, at a small price, tickets to civilians who wish to attend. Members of the War Department Commission on training camp activities will be present in a body. Claude Robeson, a Washington musician, will furnish the incidental music.

M'LEOD WINS GOLF HONOR.

Evanton, Ill., Sept. 15.—James W. Barnes, of Philadelphia, annexed the title of Western open gold champion today at the Westmoreland Country Club, where he completed the 72 holes in 23 strokes. Second place went to W. C. Hagen, of Rochester, N. Y., with 28. Fred McLeod, of Washington, D. C., with 29, was fifth.

GIRL IS KILLED IN CAR CRASH

Trolley Collided with Heavy Truck of War Department.

Crushed by the front dash board when the Washington Railway and Electric street car, in which she was riding, crashed into an automobile truck, owned by the Quartermasters Department of the United States army, at Fourth and Bryant streets northeast, Miss Gertrude Smallwood, 25, 7th Sixth street northwest, died at 2:40 o'clock yesterday afternoon at the Casualty Hospital, one hour after the accident.

Authorities of the hospital declared last night that Miss Smallwood's death was caused by internal hemorrhages.

That the street car struck the motor truck, caving its front dash board in, was learned last night from the police, who investigated the case. The motorman, C. Jenkins, 1708 Seventh street northwest, and the conductor, O. C. Shank, 1227 Fifteenth street northwest, who were in charge of the car, were arrested by police of No. Ten precinct and are being held for the coroner's inquest into the death of Miss Smallwood.

Albert A. Smith, colored, 24 v street northwest, was the civilian driver of the motor truck, which is in use at Fort Myer.

After the accident Smith drove his truck to the military post. He was later arrested and held in No. 8 precinct pending the outcome of the inquest.

IDENTIFIED BODIES AWAIT CLAIMANTS

Remains of Wm. Eschleman and Jordan Sparks at Morgue.

Two persons who were killed Friday and yesterday, were identified last night as Jordan Sparks, colored, a soldier in Company C, First Separate Battalion, D. C. Infantry, and William Eschleman, 114 G street northwest. The bodies were sent to the District morgue and at an early hour this morning had not been claimed.

NAVY YARD EMPLOYEES GET WAGE INCREASE

Ten per cent increases for the civilian employees of the navy yards and naval arsenals were yesterday decided upon by the wage adjustment board, of which Franklin D. Roosevelt, Assistant Secretary of the Navy, is chairman. For the first time, the War Department participated in the annual wage adjustment and the decision of the board will also affect all work in army arsenals.

Infantry, and William Eschleman, 114 G street northwest. The bodies were sent to the District morgue and at an early hour this morning had not been claimed.

William Eschleman died at the Emergency Hospital, Friday night as the result of being struck earlier in the day by a Washington Railway and Electric street car on New York avenue, between Thirtieth and Fourteenth street northwest.

At the coroner's inquest it was declared that death was caused through the carelessness of the deceased. The body of the colored soldier, Jordan Sparks, was found floating in the Washington channel, foot of Fourteenth street southwest, early yesterday morning, by Henry R. Robinson, 720 Twelfth street southwest. The body was recovered by the harbor police.

Ten per cent increases for the civilian employees of the navy yards and naval arsenals were yesterday decided upon by the wage adjustment board, of which Franklin D. Roosevelt, Assistant Secretary of the Navy, is chairman. For the first time, the War Department participated in the annual wage adjustment and the decision of the board will also affect all work in army arsenals.

The determination this year was made some weeks earlier than usual, owing to the unsettled labor conditions surrounding the marine industries. The Puget Sound Navy Yard was granted the greatest increase of any of the navy yards, because of the higher rate of wages prevailing in its surrounding territory. The Puget Sound rate was, however, less than that recommended by the local board.
